4. Eligibility

Was the use of the site on 20 March 2013 (or the last use before that date) solely for an agricultural use as part of an established agricultural unit?

Yes  No

If not, and was the site only brought into use after 20 March 2013, what date was it brought into use solely for an agricultural use as part of an established agricultural unit:  (DD/MM/YYYY)

Has the use, as detailed above, been continuous since the date stated; and will that use continue until the proposed development commences?

Yes  No

To be eligible for this permitted development right, the site must have been used as detailed above:

- on 20 March 2013 (or the last use before that date); or
- if brought into use after 20 March 2013, for a period of at least 10 years prior to development commencing.

If this will not be the case, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Has any work under the permitted development rights for the erection, extension or alteration of a building reasonably necessary for the purposes of agriculture been carried out on the agricultural unit since 20 March 2013?

Yes  No

If you have answered yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the external dimensions of the resulting building(s) extend beyond the existing building(s) at any point?

Yes  No

If you have answered yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will all the proposed new dwellinghouses have gross internal floor areas of at least 37 square metres, and comply with the nationally described space standard?

Yes  No

If you have answered no above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4. Eligibility (continued)

Is any part of the land, site or building:

- in a conservation area;
- in an area of outstanding natural beauty;
- in an area specified by the Secretary of State for the purposes of enhancement and protection of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside;
- in the Broads;
- in a National Park;
- in a World Heritage Site;
- in a site of special scientific interest;
- in a safety hazard area;
- in a military explosives storage area;
- a scheduled monument (or the site contains one);
- a listed building (or within the curtilage of a listed building).

Yes       No

If you have answered yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

5. Agricultural Tenants

Is the site currently occupied under any agricultural tenancy agreements?

Yes       No

If yes, have all the parties to any agricultural tenancy agreements consented to the change of use?

Yes       No

If the site is currently occupied under any agricultural tenancy agreements and:

- all parties have consented to the change of use

You will need to include copies of the written confirmations from all relevant landlords and tenants, stating their consent, when this application is submitted.

- not all parties have consented to the change of use

Your proposals will not be eligible for permitted development based on the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Have any agricultural tenancy agreements been terminated in the year before development is proposed to begin for the purpose of carrying out the proposed change of use?

Yes       No

If yes, have all the parties to all of the terminated agricultural tenancy agreements agreed that the site is no longer required for agricultural use?

Yes       No

If any agricultural tenancy agreements have been terminated in the year before development is proposed to begin for the purpose of carrying out the proposed change of use, and:

- all parties have agreed that the site is no longer required for agricultural use

You will need to include copies of the written confirmations from all relevant landlords and tenants, stating that they agree the site is no longer required for any agricultural use, when this application is submitted.

- not all parties agreed that the site is no longer required for agricultural use

Your proposals will not be eligible for permitted development based on the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

6. Dwellinghouses and floor space

How many smaller dwellinghouses will be created by this proposal:

How many smaller dwellinghouses have previously been created under this permitted development right on this established agricultural unit:

Smaller dwellinghouses are defined as having no more than 100 square metres of floor space per dwelling.

How many larger dwellinghouses will be created by this proposal:

How many larger dwellinghouses have previously been created under this permitted development right on this established agricultural unit:

Larger dwellinghouses are defined as having more than 100 but no more than 465 square metres of floor space per dwelling.

What will be the net increase in dwellinghouses:

Note that this figure should be the number of dwellinghouses proposed by the development that is additional to the number of dwellinghouses on the site immediately prior to the development.

Will the floor space of any single proposed dwellinghouse exceed 465 square metres?

Yes  No

Will the total combined floor space (previously and in this proposal) changed to Larger Dwellinghouses under this permitted development right on this established agricultural unit exceed 465 square metres?

Yes  No

To be eligible for this permitted development right, the number and size of dwellinghouses developed has to be within the limits set by legislation. This includes any dwellinghouses that were previously developed under this permitted development right.

- No more than a total of 5 dwellinghouses (including no more than 3 larger dwellinghouses) can be developed;
- No single dwellinghouse can exceed 465 square metres of floor space; and
- The total combined floor space of all the larger dwellinghouses developed cannot exceed 465 square metres.

If the proposals exceed any of these limits, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from your Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

7. Description of Proposed Works, Impacts and Risks

Please describe the proposed development, including the siting and location of the building(s):
